Essay

The School considers student involvement on various levels of activity to be of major importance. While punctuation, grammar and spelling are important, the main purpose of this essay is to learn more about you, not just your writing ability. Please consider this while answering.

Please choose one of the following questions and in your own words, write a brief composition about it.

1. What person has influenced you the most and why?
2. Has one experience changed your life in some way? Explain how.
3. What is your favorite book and why?
4. If you had two weeks of free time, how would you spend it?
